ASMA BATOOL

International Relations Researcher | Policy and Social Impact Professional
Islamabad, Pakistan | Email: asma.batool.research@gmail.com

PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

International Relations researcher and development-sector professional interested in foreign policy, international affairs, social justice, and community-based development. Combines academic research, policy writing, and practical experience in NGO programmes and stakeholder coordination.

EDUCATION

MPhil in International Relations - National Defence University, Islamabad (Nov 2021)
Graduate research in foreign policy analysis, regional strategic dynamics, and IR theory.

BS in Defence and Diplomatic Studies - Fatima Jinnah Women University (2017)
Multidisciplinary foundation in diplomacy, conflict resolution, and international law.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Program Partner Assistant - E HANDS (Feb 2026 - May 2026)
Coordinated partner communications, supported field programme tracking and monitoring reports.

Event Management - HelpAge (2023)
Coordinated logistics, delegate communication, and documentation for consultative roundtables.

Program Officer - Muslim Aid (2023)
Supported community interventions, stakeholder liaison, and field documentation.

Lecturer - Bahria University Islamabad (2022)
Taught undergraduate courses in International Relations; mentored students in research.

Administration Intern - Ministry of Defence (2017 - 2018)

Research Intern - Sustainable Development Policy Institute / SDPI (2016)

SELECTED PUBLICATIONS & WRITING

- Book Chapter: "Pakistan-US Relations and Indian Factor", Nobel Academic Publishing, 2022.
- Journal Article: "Pakistan’s State Sovereignty in the Light of Saudi Arabia’s Overt Dictation".
- Op-Ed: "Pakistan-Bangladesh Diplomacy", Daily Times.
- Policy Brief: "Pakistan’s Trade Policy with India", Sustainable Development Policy Institute (SDPI).